Family Law Workshops

Do you have questions about going to court?

Twice a month, Tarrant County's Domestic Relations Office hosts Family Law Workshops on the 3rd floor of the 1895 Courthouse. General information will be presented by Tarrant County attorneys on the legal process as it pertains to family law cases. Attorneys cannot represent you.

The workshops will be held twice a month. Please note, there will only be one workshop in November.

October 3rd & 17th
November 7th
December 5th & 19th

Members of Domestic Relations Office at Employee Appreciation Day 2024

For additional information, please visit the Tarrant County Domestic Relations Office website at <https://>

The workshops are for family law cases only.

HIGHLIGHT: TARRANT COUNTY ARCHIVES OVERHEAD SCANNER

Tarrant County Archives hosted a county employee open house to demonstrate their new scanner capable of scanning large items such as maps and scrapbooks. The Dell DeHay Law Library contributed historic maps and plans from the law library for scanning on the new equipment.

Pictured are Archives management, Jaime Parker and Jamie Sheppard, explaining the variety of historic collections housed in Tarrant County as well as their mission to preserve the history of Tarrant County and create greater access to the community through digital content.

Their mission is to “collect, preserve, and provide access to materials that serve as record of Tarrant County History.” Visit the Tarrant County Archives website for additional information at <https://www.tarrantcountytexas.gov/en/tarrant-county-archives.html>.

Commitment to Service

Dell DeHay Law Library staff congratulates Cara Sitton and Amanda Hill on their elections to leadership roles in the Dallas Association of Law Librarians (DALL) and Southwestern Association of Law Libraries (SWALL) for 2024/2025!

Cara serves as Chair for the Legal Information Services to the Public Committee. She will work with local chapters and within SWALL to provide programs and materials for the general public.

Amanda serves as Secretary for the DALL Executive Board and Co-Chair for the SWALL Constitution and Bylaws Committee. She will work to revise and review changes to the SWALL Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws as necessary.

Law Library Research Guides

Librarians at the Dell DeHay Law Library create Research Guides which are useful to patrons researching a specific legal question or topic. We currently have over 140 research guides available. Guides are arranged both alphabetically and topically on our website. Use QR code to access research guides online.

Law Library's Online Access to Forms

The Law Library also has commonly requested fill-in-the-blank forms available on its Forms webpage, accessible at www.tarrantcountytexas.gov/en/law-library/forms.html. It is important to note that there are not fill-in-the-blank forms for every situation. Contact the Law Library if you do not see information on your legal research topic.

Virtual Court Kiosk

Texas Legal Services Center partnered with the Law Library to provide a Virtual Court Kiosk in Tarrant County. It is a computer station where you can attend virtual court or find legal help. Access to the kiosk is first come, first served. To schedule, contact the Law Library. The Virtual Court Kiosk is now available on the 4th floor.

About the Authors

Brittany Schick has a background in academic libraries, most notably Dallas College, where she worked as a reference librarian. She graduated with her Master's Degree in Library Science from the University of North Texas in 2009. She has worked at the Dell DeHay Law Library for two years. Some of her duties include providing reference services and assisting with compiling research guides. Her favorite hobbies are reading and writing. She is thankful for the opportunity to share her love of both with the community.

Amanda Hill has served as the Assistant Law Library Director since 2021. She holds a Master's in History from Texas Christian University, with experience in material culture studies and archives. She also oversees the Law Library's website, research guides, and historical collections. She is currently serving as Secretary for DALL, co-chair for the Constitution & Bylaws Committee in SWALL, and is a member of the Log Cabin Heritage Foundation Board.
