OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION

Information and Instructions Regarding the Application for Temporary and Final Protective Orders

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System (OCA) is required¹ to develop and make available on OCA's Internet website a standardized form for an application to apply for a protective order. Effective June 1, 2024, state law requires applicants to use OCA's standardized form when applying for a protective order. Use these instructions and application to apply for a protective order, including a temporary ex parte order, if you need protection from someone who hurt or threatened you, and that person is:

1. your current or former spouse;
2. your current or former girlfriend, boyfriend, or dating partner;
3. someone with whom you live or have lived with in the past (in the same household);
4. someone with whom you have a child together (biological child, adopted child, foster child, etc.);
5. a close relative or a member of your family;
6. someone who is or was dating or married to your current spouse, girlfriend, boyfriend, or dating partner;
7. someone who has committed an offense against you, and the offense was trafficking, sexual assault, indecent assault, aggravated sexual assault, stalking, or compelling prostitution;
8. someone who abused a child member of the person's family or household, and you are the parent or guardian of that child (You can file the application on the child's behalf); or
9. someone who committed family violence, dating violence, child abuse, trafficking, sexual assault or abuse, indecency with a child, indecent assault, stalking, or compelling prostitution against a family or household member who is less than 18 years of age, and you are filing the application on that family or household member's behalf.

There may be other situations that may lead you to request a protective order. In essence, if you were hurt or threatened by someone with whom you have a close relationship, or if you were sexually assaulted or stalked by someone, even if you do not have a close relationship with that person, you may file an application for a protective order. A "close relationship" includes marriage, close relatives, dating or living together, or having a child together, including a biological, foster or adopted child.

In some situations, you may file the application on someone's behalf if that person needs protection. However, there are limits on who may file the application on someone's behalf. You must be one of the following:

1. An adult applying to protect any child from family violence;
2. An adult member of a family of household applying to protect a child who was abused by another member of the same family of household;
3. An adult member of the family or household filing on behalf of another member of the family or household;
4. A prosecuting attorney;
5. An attorney representing the person who was hurt or threatened; or
6. An employee of the Department of Family and Protective Services.

DO I HAVE TO USE OCA'S APPLICATION?

Yes - State law requires you to use the application created by OCA. You will find the application on OCA's website. Be sure to check the website for the most recent version of the application.

CAN I ALTER THE APPLICATION?

If you are not an attorney or court staff, please do not alter the application, as you may delete provisions that are required by statute.

ATTENTION ATTORNEYS FILING ON BEHALF OF AN APPLICANT – Attorneys may alter the style of the cause and signature line to fit their particular needs. Attorneys may delete parts or sections that do not apply to their case, but they should not change the order of the content, the material components of the application, or any element required by statute. OCA will publish an unlocked version of the application for attorneys to use within a week or two.

TO REQUEST A PROTECTIVE ORDER, YOU MUST DO THE FOLLOWING:

1. Print these instructions and the application for protective order from OCA's website, unless you are completing the application online. If you want to complete the application online, download the form and enable editing.
2. Complete the application using a dark color ink pen (blue or black).

3. Verify that you have marked all applicable boxes with an and that your mark is dark and clearly visible so that it will show when copied.
4. Sign the application using a dark color ink pen (blue or black).
5. If you are requesting a temporary ex parte order, complete either the Affidavit or the Declaration located at the end of the application.
6. Provide an address where the court can contact you. If you do not want the person who hurt or threatened you to have your contact information, ask a family member, close friend, or person you trust if you can use his or her address, or designate a person who is willing to receive court information and notices on your behalf and provide that person's address. Do not use the address of a person who plans to move soon. Also, if you designate someone, it is important to designate a person who will deliver court information and notices to you immediately.
7. File the application with the clerk of the court. For more information on where to file the application, see the section below for Where Do I File the Application?
8. Provide the clerk with at least two copies of the application and required documents, if any. One of the copies will be served on or delivered to the Respondent, the person who hurt or threatened you. The clerk will return the other copy to you after stamping it.
9. YOU DO NOT HAVE TO PAY FILING COSTS OR FEES when you file the application. If the clerk demands payment, kindly ask the clerk to read Section 81.002 of the Family Code, which reads as follows:

Sec. 81.002. NO FEE FOR APPLICANT. An applicant for a protective order or an attorney representing an applicant may not be assessed a fee, cost, charge, or expense by a district or county clerk of the court or a sheriff, constable, or other public official or employee in connection with the filing, serving, or entering of a protective order or for any other service described by this subsection, including:

- (1) a fee to dismiss, modify, or withdraw a protective order;
- (2) a fee for certifying copies;
- (3) a fee for comparing copies to originals;
- (4) a court reporter fee;
- (5) a judicial fund fee;
- (6) a fee for any other service related to a protective order; or
- (7) a fee to transfer a protective order.

Added by Acts 1997, 75th Leg., ch. 34, Sec. 1, eff. May 5, 1997. Amended by Acts 1997, 75th Leg., ch. 1193, Sec. 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1997.

10. If the court grants the protective order, complete the TCIC Protective Order Data Entry Form (located on OCA's website) and give it to the clerk when you attend the hearing for the protective order. This document is very important because law enforcement must enter this information into a statewide and national database. Law enforcement uses the information to serve and enforce the protective order, including when arresting the person who hurt or threatened you if that person violates provisions of the order.

WHAT DOCUMENTS ARE NEEDED TO COMPLETE THE APPLICATION?

You may need one or more of the following documents to complete or file with the application:

1. A copy of any protective order that you had in the past against the person who hurt or threatened you.
2. A copy of the final order or judgment in any criminal, divorce, or custody case involving you and the person who hurt or threatened you.
3. The agency case number if the Office of the Attorney General Child Support Division is involved in your child support case.
4. Some courts may require you to submit a proposed order with your application for a protective order. If you are requesting the court to issue a temporary ex parte order before the final hearing, you will submit a proposed order for the temporary ex parte order and a proposed order for the protective order. If you did not request a temporary ex parte order, you will submit a proposed order for the protective order. You will find the orders on OCA's website. Print the order(s) from the website. DO NOT FILL OUT OR COMPLETE THE ORDER(S). We recommend printing two copies of each order needed. You will attach one copy to your application and bring one with you to court.

WHERE DO I FILE THE APPLICATION?

You may file the application in one of three places: the county where you live, the county in which the person who hurt or threatened you lives, or in any county where the violence or crime occurred. However, if there is an open divorce or custody case involving you and the other person, file the application in the county where the case is pending or where you live.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION

BEFORE YOU BEGIN...

1. Use a dark color ink pen (black or blue) to complete the application.
2. It is important to leave a dark mark when marking a box. We recommend using an X when marking a box . If your mark is faint, or if you forget to mark a box, the court or person viewing the order may assume the particular box does not apply.
3. When filling in or completing the application, only mark those boxes that apply to you or your situation. For example, if children are not involved, do not complete the information in No. 12 Orders Related to Removal, Possession, and Support of Children.

Who is the Applicant?
The Applicant is the person who was hurt, threatened, or victimized. If you are filing the application on behalf of someone who was hurt, threatened, or victimized, you are NOT the Applicant.
What if I am filing the application on someone's behalf?
You must check the box that indicates you are filing the application on behalf of the Applicant (the person who was hurt, threatened, or victimized) and provide your name and title or relationship to the person. See the example below. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Check this box if you are completing or filing this application on behalf of the Applicant. Name/Title of Person Completing or Filing this Application: Sophia Long, mother of Applicant
Who is the Respondent?
The Respondent is the person who hurt or threatened you or caused another to hurt or threaten you. The court will issue the protective order against the Respondent.

1. Parties – Applicant: Please write or enter the name and county of residence for the Applicant. You are the Applicant if you are requesting the protective order for yourself. However, if you are requesting the protective order on someone's behalf, that person is the Applicant, and you should enter that person's name and county of residence. Respondent: Please write or enter the name, county of residence, and address for the person who hurt or threatened you. Provide the address where the person lives or can be found, so the clerk or sheriff can let the person know that you are requesting a protective order and that a hearing has been set for the order. If you are filing the application on someone's behalf, you should mark the box indicating so and provide your name and title or name and relationship to the person. See the example below.

Mark this box if you are completing and filing this application on behalf of the Applicant.

Betty Smith

Name of Person Filing the Application

Assistant District Attorney

Title of Person Filing the Application

2. Reason for Protective Order – You must have a legal reason to apply for a protective order. You have a legal reason if you are a victim of family violence or a crime involving sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, indecency with a child, compelling prostitution, stalking, or trafficking. Additionally, you have a legal reason if you have a protective order, and the person who hurt or threatened you violates a part of the order that is designed to protect you or a member of your family or household.

“Family violence” occurs when you are hurt or threatened by a member of your family or household or a current or former dating partner. This is not the only time family violence occurs. Family violence occurs when your ex-dating partner or ex-spouse threatens, harms, or injures your current spouse or dating partner. It also occurs when a child is abused by a member of the child’s family or household.

Please mark all boxes that provide a legal reason for you to apply for a protective order.

6. Reasons for Protective Order (Mark all that apply):

The Respondent committed family violence.

The Respondent committed sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, indecency with a child, compelling prostitution, stalking, or trafficking.

The Respondent violated a Protective Order that was active at the time of the violation but has since expired or will expire in 30 days or less. A copy of the Order is (Mark one)

Attached. Not available now but will be filed before the hearing on this Application

3. Describe Applicant’s Relationship to the Respondent – Mark the box that best describes your relationship to the person who hurt or threatened you. If there is no relationship, mark the box indicating there is no relationship between you and the person.
4. Children Under Age 18 Who Need Protection – List the names of children who are members of your family or household if you think they need protection. If you list a child, you should indicate whether the person who hurt or threatened you is a parent or guardian of the child. There are three boxes provided below the space included for the names of the children.

1st box: If you need more space to list the names of the children, you may attach a separate sheet with the names. If an additional sheet is attached, please mark the box that indicates an additional sheet is attached. Please write the following at the top of the sheet – “Application for Protective Order, No. 3 –Children (continued).”

Mark all that apply:

- Other children are listed on a sheet attached to this Application.
- The children are or were members of the Applicant’s family or household.
- The children are the subject of a court order affecting access to them or their support.

2nd box: The children must be current or former members of your family or household. If you are filing the application on someone’s behalf, the children must be current or former members of that person’s family or household. You must mark the box to verify that the children are members of your family or household.

Mark all that apply:

- Other children are listed on a sheet attached to this Application.
- The children are or were members of the Applicant’s family or household.
- The children are the subject of a court order affecting access to them or their support.

3rd box: Check this box if there is a pending divorce or custody case involving any of the children.

Mark all that apply:

- Other children are listed on a sheet attached to this Application.
- The children are or were members of the Applicant’s family or household.
- The children are the subject of a court order affecting access to them or their support.

5. Other Adults - You can ask for protection for an adult member who is or was a member of your family or household, a dating partner, or a spouse. Please provide the full legal name of the adult(s).

6. Other Court Cases – The court needs to know whether any of the parties or persons in need of protection are involved in another case, such as a criminal, divorce or child support or custody case. If there is another case, the court may need to notify the other court or transfer the application or protective order to the other court or another county. If there is or was another case, please mark the box Yes and write the type and status of the case in the space provided. Include the cause number and county of the case, if known. See the example below.

5. Other Court Cases: Are there other court cases involving the Applicant, Respondent, or children?

- Yes
- No

If “Yes,” what kind of case and is the case active or complete?

Divorce case is active.

If the case is complete (closed), mark the box that best indicates when you will provide a copy of the final order, divorce decree or judgment for the case. Finally, if the Attorney General's Child Support Division is involved with any of the parties, please mark the box that indicates the Attorney General's office is involved and provide the case number, if you know it.

If "completed," (Mark all that apply):

- A copy of the final order is attached.
- A copy of the final order will be filed before the hearing on this Application.

- The Texas Office of the Attorney General Child Support Division has been involved with a child support case. List the agency case number for each open case, if known.

Case Number: 24-1234-F

7. Family Violence – Please answer the questions with respect to the Respondent's history of family violence or criminal cases. If you do not know the answer to any of the questions, mark the box for Unknown.

8. Terms and Conditions – You can request certain terms and conditions for your protective order. For instance, you may ask the court to order the person who hurt or threatened you to do (complete a program for abusers) or to refrain from doing something (stay away or not come within a certain distance of you). You do not have to mark all of the conditions or terms that are listed in the application, but keep in mind that if you do not mark a condition or term, the court may not include it the protective order. Select conditions and terms that you think will decrease the person's opportunity (it will not eliminate it completely) to hurt or threaten you again.

Please note that if you ask the court to suspend the person's license to carry a handgun, the court may not suspend the license if the person is a peace officer actively engaged in employment as a sworn, full-time paid employee of a state agency or political subdivision.

9. Property Orders – If you share a residence or live with the person who hurt or threatened you, provide the address of the residence. You can ask the court to make that person move out. However, if your name is not on the lease, deed or rental agreement, the court will not order the person to move out, unless the person is legally obligated to support you or the children/child in your care. If you want the court to order the person to move out, you must file a sworn statement supporting your request and go to court to explain to the judge why the person should be ordered to move out.

If the court grants you exclusive possession of the residence or other property, you can request law enforcement assistance you when you return to the residence to claim it or your property. If you want to request exclusive possession of the residence or other property and need law enforcement assistance, you would complete this section as follows:

The Applicant asks the Court to make these orders (Mark all that apply):

- Grant the Applicant exclusive use of the residence identified above, and order the Respondent to vacate the residence and its premises;
- Order the sheriff, constable, or chief of police to go with the Applicant to the residence if the Respondent is ordered to vacate the residence to tell Respondent that the Court has ordered the Respondent to leave the residence, provide protection to the Applicant while the Applicant takes possession of the residence and or while the Respondent takes possession of personal property. Applicant requests that law enforcement arrest or remove the Respondent if the Respondent refuses to leave the residence as ordered by the Court;
- Applicant requests exclusive use of the following property that the Applicant and Respondent jointly own or lease:
The 2010 blue Toyota Corolla (Texas License Plate PLX 3489), our pit bull Harper, the sofa, television, computer, cell phone that we share, and the microwave.

10. Spousal Support – If you are requesting spousal support, you must be married to the person who hurt or threatened you or legally entitled to support from that person. If you are requesting spousal support, you must mark Box No. 10. If you do not mark the box, the court may not order the Respondent to pay spousal support.

10. Spousal Support Order (Mark the box if asking for spousal support)

If the Applicant is married to the Respondent, Applicant requests the Court to order the Respondent to pay spousal support.

11. Right to Mobile Phone Numbers, Associated Devices and Accounts – If your cell phone number is under the Respondent’s wireless cell phone account, you can request separation of your cell phone number from the Respondent’s account. Also, you can request separation of the cell phone number of any child in your care and custody if that child is the primary user of that number. You must list the cell phone numbers that you want the court to separate. If your request is granted, the court will issue an order directing the Respondent’s cell phone service provider (for instance, ATT, T-Mobile, Sprint) to transfer the cell phone numbers and billing responsibilities to you. Unless the court orders otherwise, you will not be responsible for the outstanding balance on the Respondent’s account. For more information regarding who is responsible or what the service provider can charge for making the transfer, see Section 609.001 of the Business and Commerce Code.

If you want to request separation of your cell phone number, you must mark Box No.

11. If you do not mark the box, the court may not order the number separated from the Respondent's account. The following is an example of how to complete the application if you want to request separation of your cell phone number.

10. Rights to Mobile Phone Numbers, Associated Devices, and Accounts (Mark the box if asking to separate or transfer the wireless phone account)

The Applicant asks the Court to order the separation of the wireless telephone numbers that are used primarily by the Applicant or a person listed in this application as a person in need of protection from the Respondent's wireless telephone service account. The Applicant asks for sole use, possession, and control of the following mobile phone numbers and associated mobile devices, including sole billing responsibility and sole ownership of the wireless telephone service account associated with the mobile numbers.

The Applicant further asks the Court to order the Respondent to pay the costs associated with transferring the wireless service account to the Applicant and to pay the outstanding balance on the account.

The following mobile phone numbers and associated mobile devices are used by the Applicant or the children listed in this Application.

(254) 783-5555	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> my phone number	<input type="checkbox"/> child's phone number
(254) 783-5575	<input type="checkbox"/> my phone number	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> child's phone number

12. Orders Related to Removal, Possession and Support of Children – If you are not the biological, foster or adoptive parent, legal guardian, or otherwise legally responsible for the child, the court is not likely to grant your request to remove, possess, or receive child support for the child. List names of children that you and the Respondent have in common. Do not include stepchildren, unless you are legally responsible for them.

If you want to request orders with respect to the children, you must mark Box No. 11. If you do not mark the box, the court may not enter orders for the children's removal, possession or support. Provide the names of the children and mark the boxes that you want the court to grant. See the example below.

11. Orders Related to Removal, Possession, and Support of Children (Mark the box if asking for the removal, possession, or support of the children)

The Applicant and the Respondent are the parents of the following children:
Billy Bob Baker, Jr.

Betty Sue Baker

Maribelle Baker

The Applicant asks the Court to enter the following orders with respect to the children: (Mark all that apply):

- The Respondent must not remove the children from the Applicant's possession or from their child-care facility or school, except as specifically authorized in a possession schedule or other order entered by the Court;
- The Respondent must not remove the children from the jurisdiction of the Court;

- Establish or modify a schedule for the Respondent's possession of the children, subject to any terms and conditions necessary for the safety of the Applicant or the children; and
- Require the Respondent to pay child support in an amount set by the Court

13. Temporary Ex Parte ORDER – When you file your application for a protective order, you have the option of requesting a temporary ex parte order if you need immediate protection from the person who hurt or threatened you. If you request a temporary ex parte order, the court will review your application and determine whether a temporary order is needed under the circumstances. If the court finds that it is, the court will issue the temporary ex parte order immediately, and you and the person who hurt or threatened you will be notified. The temporary order will be in effect for 20 days, unless you request an extension. If the court is unable to hold a hearing before the temporary order expires, you must request an extension of the temporary order if the need for immediate protection remains.

If you want to request a temporary ex parte order, mark Box No. 13.

13. Temporary Ex Parte ORDER (Mark the box if requesting a temporary ex parte order)

Based on the information in the attached Affidavit or Declaration, the Applicant asks the Court to find that there is a clear and present danger of family violence, sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, stalking, trafficking, or other harm to Applicant and/or a member of the family or household and issue a Temporary Ex Parte Order immediately without bond, notice, or hearing

13a. Temporary Ex Parte Order That Also Requires The Respondent to Vacate Residence Immediately – Mark this box if you want to request a temporary ex parte order that excludes the person who hurt or threatened you from the residence. You cannot exclude the person from the residence if more than 29 days have passed since you left or moved out. The court may not exclude the person from the residence if the person's name is the only name on the lease, deed, or rental agreement, unless the person has a legal obligation to support you or the children. IF YOU MARK THIS OPTION, YOU MUST APPEAR IN COURT TO TESTIFY. THE JUDGE WILL ASK QUESTIONS AND MAY ORDER THE RESPONDENT TO COME TO COURT OR TO TESTIFY.

If you want to request a temporary ex parte order that excludes the person who hurt or injured you from the residence, mark Box No. 13a. Remember: You cannot request an order to exclude the person from the residence if more than 29 days have passed since you left or moved out. See the example below.

13a. Temporary Ex Parte Order That Also Requires Respondent to Vacate Residence Immediately (Mark the box if requesting a temporary ex parte order that excludes the Respondent from the shared residence)

14. Keep Information Confidential – Although the law prohibits the public disclosure of sensitive data (including, birth date, home address, and names of minors), IT IS IMPORTANT TO MARK BOX NO. 14 IF YOU DO NOT WANT YOUR COUNTY OF RESIDENCE AND THE ADDRESS AND TELEPHONE NUMBER FOR YOUR RESIDENCE, WORKPLACE, SCHOOL, OR CHILDCARE FACILITY DISCLOSED TO THE PUBLIC. Below is an example of how you should mark Box No. 14 if you want your information to remain confidential.

14. Keep Information Confidential (Mark the box if you want your information to remain confidential)

In accordance with Sections 82.011 and 85.007, Tex. Fam. Code, the Applicant requests the Court to exclude from the protective order the county of residence and the address and telephone number for the residence, workplace, school, and childcare facility of any person protected by the protective order. The Applicant further asks the Court to order the clerk of the court to strike the aforementioned information from the public records of the Court and to keep a confidential record of this information for use only by the Court or a law enforcement agency for the purpose of entering the information required by Section 411.042(b)(6), Gov't Code, into the statewide law enforcement information system maintained by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

If you mark Box 14, please provide the name and address of the person you want to receive information and documents on your behalf.

If the Applicant is requesting confidentiality, provide information requested below:

The Applicant asks the Court to designate the following person as the person to receive on Applicant's behalf all notices or documents filed with the Court and related to this Application:

Name: Chester Williams
Address: 56 North Loop Drive, Fairview, Texas 75002

15. Citations and Notices – The clerk will issue all citations and notices required for the issuance of the protective order.

16. Prayer – After completing the application, please read it to see if it is correct to the best of your knowledge. If it is, please mark the box that indicates you have read the entire application, and it is correct to the best of your knowledge.

17. Signature - YOU MUST SIGN THE APPLICATION, EVEN IF YOU ARE FILING IT ON SOMEONE'S BEHALF. Provide your complete address, including the city, state, and zip code, and telephone number in the space provided below your signature. If you do not want to use your address and telephone number, use the address and telephone number of the person you designated to receive notices on your behalf. If you are filing the application on someone's behalf, you must sign the application indicating that you are filing on behalf of the Applicant and provide your contact information, unless you designated another person to receive notices on the Applicant's behalf.

I have read the entire Application and it is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Betty Appleberry on behalf of Applicant

Applicant or Person filing on behalf of Applicant

18. Affidavit or Declaration – If you are requesting a temporary ex parte order, you must complete and submit an Affidavit or Declaration with your application. It is important to note that the Respondent will receive a copy of your application along with the Affidavit or Declaration.

- Use the Affidavit if you want to keep your date of birth and address confidential, but you must sign it in front of a notary public.
- Use the Declaration if you do not want to sign in front of a notary public. However, your date of birth and address might be disclosed.

Once you decide which form to use, answer the questions as best you can. This is your opportunity to explain what happened. You do not have to give every detail. A summary of what happened is sufficient. The court will hold a hearing and you will be asked to testify. You can provide more details during your testimony. Use additional pages if you need more space. You must sign the form where it says "Applicant." NOTE: If you are completing the Affidavit, do not sign it until you are in front of the notary.

If you are not requesting a temporary ex parte order, you do not have to complete or submit the Affidavit or Declaration.

19. TCIC PROTECTIVE ORDER DATA ENTRY FORM –Complete the TCIC Data Entry Form to the best of your ability. You will find the form on OCA's website. Give the form to the clerk when you go to court for the hearing. If the court grants the temporary ex parte order without holding a hearing, it is important that you take the form to the clerk's office as soon as possible.

The form is important because law enforcement is required to enter information on the form into a statewide and national database that is used by law enforcement officers when serving and enforcing protective orders.

Please complete the parts of the form in yellow highlight the best you can. If you do not know the information requested, leave it blank. Please provide, at a minimum:

- a. the Respondent's name, date of birth, sex, height, weight, eye color, hair color, and race;
- b. the Protected Person's Data on page 2 of the form (this is for you or the Applicant and any adult protected by the Protective Order); and
- c. the Protected Child's Data on page 2 of the form.

If you need to add more children or adults, you can add pages.

THE TCIC DATA ENTRY FORM DOES NOT BECOME PART OF THE PUBLIC RECORD AND WILL NOT BE SHARED WITH THE RESPONDENT.

OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION

Information and Instructions For Completing the Various Protective Orders

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System (OCA) is required¹ to develop and make available on OCA's Internet website standardized forms for the Magistrate Order of Emergency Protection,² Temporary Ex Parte Order,³ and Protective Order.⁴ The following information and instructions for completing the orders are for use by Applicants, Attorneys, and Judges. Also included is information regarding the Protective Order Registry.

A. FOR SELF-REPRESENTED APPLICANTS

(You completed and filed the application for protective order for yourself or on someone's behalf and you are not an attorney.)

Some courts may require you to submit a proposed order with your application for a protective order. If the court requires you to submit a proposed order, follow these instructions, unless instructed otherwise by the court:

1. Decide which order or orders you need. If you requested the court to issue a temporary ex parte order before the final hearing you should file the Temporary Ex Parte Order and the Protective Order with your application. If you did not request a temporary ex parte order you only need to file the Protective Order with the application.
2. Print the order or orders you need. Do not change the order(s). Print them as they are. We recommend printing 2 copies of each order (attach one to the application when you file it with the clerk of the court and bring one with you to the hearing).
3. Do not complete or fill out the order or orders. The court will complete the order(s) if the court grants your request.

If the court does not require you to submit a proposed order with your application, we recommend printing but not completing the order and taking it with you when you attend the hearing.

² Issued under Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Article 17.292.

³ Issued under Texas Family Code Ch. 83; Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Article 7B.002.

⁴ Issued under Texas Family Code Title 4 or Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Subchapter A, Ch. 7B.

B. FOR ATTORNEYS

If you are a licensed attorney, you may do the following:

1. Format the style of the cause and signature line to fit your particular needs. However, please note that the content of the orders is written with the Applicant as the person who was hurt, threatened, or victimized and the Respondent as the person who committed the act of family violence or the criminal offense. If you change the style or signature line, please adjust the content of the order accordingly, if needed. We do not recommend changing the style or signature line, as the application contains a box that you can mark to indicate that you are filing the application on behalf of the Applicant (the person in need of protection). If you change the style or signature line, be sure to match the character, font, and justification to those used in the order (Font: Arial, Font size: 11, justified).
2. Delete portions of the Order that do not apply your case. For instance, if the Court makes a finding that family violence occurred, which is Option (A) under II. FINDINGS AND ORDERS on the Protective Order form and none of the other findings apply, you may remove all of the other findings and rewrite the sentence to read, “ After considering the application, evidence, and arguments of the parties, if any, the Court FINDS that family violence occurred. Therefore, the Court grants the application and issues this Protective Order against the Respondent.” If you make edits, be sure to match the character, font, and justification to those used in the order (Font: Arial, Font size: 11, justified).

ATTORNEYS SHOULD NOT CHANGE THE ORDER OF THE CONTENT OR THE SUBSTANCE (MATERIAL COMPONENTS) OF THE ORDER. Additional orders or instructions may be included in Section VII. ADDITIONAL/SPECIAL ORDERS of the Order, and ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OR TERMS may be included in Section IV. CONDITIONS AND TERMS OF ORDER. If additional or special orders are not included, please mark the box that indicates none are entered.

C. FOR JUDGES

Senate Bill 48 (88th Regular Session, 2023) requires courts and magistrates issuing protective orders to use standardized order forms created by OCA.⁵ However, a court’s

⁵ Effective June 1, 2024. See Texas Family Code Sections 83.007(a) and 85.0221(a) and Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Articles 7B.0021(a), 7B.003(d), and 17.292(d-1).

failure to use a standardized order form does not affect the validity or enforceability of the order issued.⁶

The Temporary Ex Parte Order and the Protective Order may be used for orders issued under the Family Code, Code of Criminal Procedure, or both. When completing the order, the Applicant is the person who was hurt, threatened, or victimized, and the Respondent is the person who committed the act of family violence or the offense against the Applicant.

State law requires law enforcement agencies and courts to enter Magistrate Order of Emergency Protection, Temporary Ex Parte Order, and Protect Order information into required databases that are used by law enforcement throughout the state to verify the existence and validity of a protective order, as well as to check a Respondent's eligibility to possess a firearm.⁷ This information is crucial to the effective and accurate enforcement of these orders. Paperwork variations often result in delays and inaccuracies during the data entry process, thereby impacting enforcement of the orders and firearm dealers check.

1. PCO CODES

At the end of each term and condition listed in the protective orders, you will find a code (e.g., TCIC Form PCO-08) that corresponds to the same or similar condition listed in the TCIC Data Entry form under Protection Order Conditions (PCO). The code is included to assist law enforcement when entering information required by law into the statewide law enforcement information system that DPS maintains. Please do not change the codes.

2. FINDINGS IN COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW

The protective order contains a section for FINDINGS IN COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW. These findings assist data entry personnel when completing the TCIC Data Entry form, specifically the portion that addresses whether a Respondent is prohibited from possessing a firearm pursuant to federal law. Texas law prohibits possession of firearms in all types of protective orders regardless of the relationship between the parties. However, federal law only prohibits firearm possession for orders that meet all of the following conditions:

⁶ See Texas Family Code Sections 83.007(b) and 85.0221(b) and Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Articles 7B.0021(b), 7B.003(e), and 17.292(d-2).

⁷ Databases include the Texas Crime Information Center (TCIC), which feeds the information into the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) and the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS), and the state's Protective Order Registry maintained by OCA.

- The Applicant and the Respondent are spouses or former spouses, share a child in common, and/or live together or have lived together in an intimate relationship;
- The Respondent received actual notice of the hearing pertaining to the protective order, and was given an opportunity to participate; and
- The protective order restrains the Respondent from harassing, stalking, or threatening the Applicant or child of the Applicant.⁸

Judges should complete this section of the protective order by checking the box only if the three conditions are met. This will alert the person entering the protective order into TCIC to include the federal firearm prohibition which will be transmitted to the National Crime Information Center and the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS). Federal Firearm Licensed Dealers are required to check NICS to determine whether a purchaser is prohibited from possessing a firearm.

D. FOR CLERKS

The law requires the clerk of the court to enter Magistrate Order for Emergency Protection, Temporary Ex Parte Order, and Protective Order information into the Protective Order Registry (Registry) as soon as possible but no later than 24 hours after the court issues the order.

An Applicant or other protected person may give written permission for the public to view certain limited information about the Applicant's protective order in the Registry. A person may give this permission by filing the Consent to Publish or Remove Information from Protective Order Registry Public View form with the clerk of the court. Upon receipt of the form, the clerk must upload it to the Registry for verification and posting by OCA.

Additional information regarding the Registry is provided below. For information regarding the clerks' duties to enter protective orders into the Registry, go to the Protective Order Registry website.

PROTECTIVE ORDER REGISTRY

The Protective Order Registry is a centralized Internet-based registry for applications and protective orders filed in this state. Members of the justice community, such as court clerks, prosecutors, law enforcement officers, and magistrates can view protective orders in the Registry for enforcement and investigative purposes. The public may view limited information about a final protective order in the Registry only if the person protected by that order gives written permission for the public to do so. A protected person may give permission for the public to view limited information about the order by completing and filing the form for Consent to Publish or Remove Information from Protective Order Registry Public View with the clerk of the court. Upon receipt of the form, the clerk will upload it to the Registry, and OCA will review it. Once verified, OCA will allow the public to access limited information on its website at <https://topics.txcourts.gov/>.

The limited information includes:

- the name of the court that issued the protective order;
- the case number (sometimes called the “cause number”);
- the full name, county of residence, birth year, and race or ethnicity of the person you are protected from by the protective order (sometimes called the “Respondent”); and
- the dates the protective order was issued, was served, and expired (or will expire).

Even with a protected person’s permission, the public cannot use the Registry to access information regarding other types of protective orders. Limited access is available for final orders only. In addition, the public will not have access to a protected person’s name or other personal information. If an Applicant (or other protected person) does not want information from the protective order to be displayed on the Registry, the Applicant (or other protected person) should not complete or file the form for Consent to Publish or Remove Information from Protective Order Registry Public View.

(Sheet may be attached for additional numbers)

The Applicant asks the Court to prohibit Respondent from closing, limiting access to, or otherwise tampering with the wireless telephone service account associated with aforementioned mobile phone numbers and associated mobile devices until this Court determines who is the primary user of the mobile phone numbers and devices. Applicant also asks the Court to order the Respondent's wireless telephone service provider not to disclosure the Applicant's or other persons in need of protection contact information to the Respondent, including any new telephone numbers assigned to the Applicant or other person in need of protection.

12. Orders Related to Removal, Possession, and Support of Children (Mark the box if asking for the removal, possession, or support of the children)

The Applicant and the Respondent are the parents or guardians of the following children:

The Applicant asks the Court to enter the following orders with respect to the children: (Mark all that apply):

- The Respondent must not remove children from the Applicant's possession or from their child-care facility or school, except as specifically authorized in a possession schedule or other order entered by the Court.
- The Respondent must not remove the children from the jurisdiction of the Court.
- An order establishing or modifying a schedule for the Respondent's possession of the children, subject to any terms and conditions necessary for the safety of the Applicant or the children.
- An order requiring the Respondent to pay child support in an amount set by the Court.

13. Temporary Ex Parte Order (Mark the box if requesting a temporary ex parte order)

Based on the information in the attached Affidavit or Declaration, the Applicant asks the Court to find that there is a clear and present danger of family violence, sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, stalking, trafficking, or other harm to Applicant and/or a member of the family or household and issue a Temporary Ex Parte Order immediately without bond, notice, or hearing.

13a. Temporary Ex Parte Order That Also Requires Respondent to Vacate Residence Immediately
(Mark the box if you are requesting that the temporary ex parte order also exclude Respondent from the shared residence)

NOTE: IF YOU MARK 13a, YOU MUST APPEAR FOR A HEARING BEFORE THE COURT CAN EXCLUDE OR REMOVE THE RESPONDENT FROM A SHARED RESIDENCE.

The Applicant lives with the Respondent at:

or resided there within the 30 days prior to the filing of this Application. The Respondent committed family violence against the Applicant, or a member of the family or household, as described in the Affidavit or Declaration attached, within 30 days prior to the filing of this Application. There is a clear and present danger that the Respondent is likely to commit family violence against the Applicant and/or a member of the family or household. The Applicant is available for a hearing to justify the issuance of an order excluding the Respondent from the residence. If the Court grants this request, the Applicant asks the Court to issue a Temporary Ex Parte Order that:

- Grants the Applicant exclusive use and possession of the residence and orders the Respondent to vacate the residence immediately and remain at least 200 yards away from the residence pending further Order of the Court.
- Directs the sheriff, constable, or chief of police to provide a law enforcement officer to accompany the Applicant to the residence; to inform the Respondent that the Court has ordered the Respondent to vacate the residence; and to protect the Applicant while the Applicant takes possession of the residence, or while the Applicant takes possession of the Applicant's necessary personal property if the Respondent refuses to vacate the residence.

14. Keep Information Confidential (Mark the box if you want your information to remain confidential)

The Applicant requests the Court to exclude the following information from the protective order: the mailing address, county of residence, and telephone number of the Applicant and any person listed in this application as a person in need of protection; and the address and telephone number of a place of employment, business, child-care facility, or school, if any, of the Applicant and any person listed in this application as a person in need of protection. The Applicant further asks the Court to order the clerk of the court to strike the aforementioned information from the public records of the Court and keep a confidential record of the information for use only by the Court or law enforcement for the purpose of entering the information required by Section 411.042(b)(6), Government Code, into the statewide law enforcement information system maintained by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

WARNING: A copy of this application will be served on the Respondent and made available for public inspection. Marking Box No.14 means that you are asking the judge to remove your address and telephone numbers from the final order so the public cannot see this information. If you are requesting confidentiality, DO NOT INCLUDE personal information in this application or any other form related to your request.

If the Applicant is requesting confidentiality, provide the information requested below:

The Applicant asks the Court to designate the following person to receive on Applicant's behalf all notices and documents filed with the Court, if related to this Application:

Name: _____
 Address: _____

VIII. WARNINGS

A PERSON WHO VIOLATES THIS ORDER MAY BE PUNISHED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT BY A FINE OF AS MUCH AS $500.00 OR BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR AS LONG AS SIX MONTHS, OR BOTH.

NO PERSON, INCLUDING A PERSON WHO IS PROTECTED BY THIS ORDER, MAY GIVE PERMISSION TO ANYONE TO IGNORE OR VIOLATE ANY PROVISION OF THIS ORDER. DURING THE TIME IN WHICH THIS ORDER IS VALID, EVERY PROVISION OF THIS ORDER IS IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT UNLESS A COURT CHANGES THE ORDER.

IT IS UNLAWFUL FOR ANY PERSON, OTHER THAN A PEACE OFFICER, AS DEFINED BY § 1.07, PENAL CODE, ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN EMPLOYMENT AS A SWORN, FULL-TIME PAID EMPLOYEE OF A STATE AGENCY OR POLITICAL SUBDIVISION, WHO IS SUBJECT TO A PROTECTIVE ORDER TO POSSESS A FIREARM OR AMMUNITION.

IF A PERSON SUBJECT TO A PROTECTIVE ORDER IS RELEASED FROM CONFINEMENT OR IMPRISONMENT FOLLOWING THE DATE THE ORDER WOULD HAVE EXPIRED, OR IF THE ORDER WOULD HAVE EXPIRED NOT LATER THAN THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE DATE THE PERSON IS RELEASED FROM CONFINEMENT OR IMPRISONMENT, THE ORDER IS AUTOMATICALLY EXTENDED TO EXPIRE ON:

- (1) THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE DATE THE PERSON IS RELEASED, IF THE PERSON WAS SENTENCED TO CONFINEMENT OR IMPRISONMENT FOR A TERM OF MORE THAN FIVE YEARS; OR
- (2) THE SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF THE DATE THE PERSON IS RELEASED, IF THE PERSON WAS SENTENCED TO CONFINEMENT OR IMPRISONMENT FOR A TERM OF FIVE YEARS OR LESS.

A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER BY COMMISSION OF AN ACT PROHIBITED BY THE ORDER MAY BE PUNISHABLE BY A FINE OF AS MUCH AS $4,000 OR BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR AS LONG AS ONE YEAR, OR BOTH. AN ACT THAT RESULTS IN FAMILY VIOLENCE MAY BE PROSECUTED AS A SEPARATE MISDEMEANOR OR FELONY OFFENSE. IF THE ACT IS PROSECUTED AS A SEPARATE FELONY OFFENSE, IT IS PUNISHABLE BY CONFINEMENT IN PRISON FOR AT LEAST TWO YEARS.
(Applies to Orders issued under Title 4, Family Code)

IF THIS ORDER IS GRANTED PURSUANT CHAPTER 7B, CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE, A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER BY COMMISSION OF AN ACT PROHIBITED BY THE ORDER MAY BE PUNISHABLE BY A FINE OF AS MUCH AS $4,000 OR BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR AS LONG AS ONE YEAR, OR BOTH. AN ACT THAT RESULTS IN A SEPARATE OFFENSE MAY BE PROSECUTED AS A SEPARATE OFFENSE IN ADDITION TO A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER. (Applies to Orders issued under Subchapter A, Chapter 7B, Code of Criminal Procedure)

INTERSTATE VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER MAY SUBJECT YOU TO FEDERAL CRIMINAL PENALTIES. THIS PROTECTIVE ORDER IS ENFORCEABLE IN ALL FIFTY STATES, THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, TRIBAL LANDS, AND U.S. TERRITORIES.

IX. WRITTEN ADMONITION ON INELIGIBILITY TO POSSESS FIREARM OR AMMUNITION

In accordance with 1 Texas Administrative Code § 176.1, the Court hereby admonishes you of the following:

- 1. You are, by entry of this Order or Judgment, ineligible under Texas law to possess a firearm or ammunition.
- 2. Beginning now, if you possess a firearm or ammunition it could lead to charges against you. If you have questions about how long you will be ineligible to possess a firearm or ammunition, you should consult an attorney.

3. Under Texas Penal Code § 46.01(3):
- a. “Firearm” means any device designed, made, or adapted to expel a projectile through a barrel by using the energy generated by an explosion or burning substance or any device readily convertible to that use.
 - b. “Firearm” does not include a firearm that may have, as an integral part, a folding knife blade or other characteristics of weapons made illegal by Penal Code Chapter 46 and that is (1) an antique or curio firearm manufactured before 1899 or (2) a replica of an antique or curio firearm manufactured before 1899 but only if the replica does not use rim fire or center fire ammunition.

For more information about the laws that make you ineligible to possess a firearm or ammunition, or for more information on how long your ineligibility to possess a firearm or ammunition lasts, the Court recommends you contact an attorney. For your reference, you may wish to consult the statutes listed below, which may or may not apply to your circumstances:

Applicant: appeared in person did not appear Applicant's attorney:

Respondent: appeared in person did not appear Respondent's attorney:

II. FINDINGS AND ORDERS

(Mark all that apply)

After considering the application, evidence, and arguments of the parties, if any, the Court:

- (A) FINDS that family violence occurred. Therefore, the Court grants the application and issues this Protective Order against the Respondent.
- (B) FINDS that there is a presumption that family violence occurred because the Respondent was convicted of or placed on deferred adjudication community supervision for an offense under Title 5, Penal Code, for which the Court made an affirmative finding that family violence was involved, or for an offense under Title 6, Penal Code, that was committed against the child for whom this application was filed, and the Respondent's parental rights regarding the child have been terminated. Therefore, the Court grants the application and issues this Protective Order against the Respondent.
- (C) FINDS that the Respondent failed to appear after receiving service of the application and notice of the hearing. The Court further FINDS that proof of service was filed with the Court before the hearing. Therefore, the Court grants the application and issues this Protective Order by default against the Respondent.
- (D) FINDS that the parties reached an agreement with respect to this Protective Order. The Court further FINDS that the agreement does not require the Applicant to do or refrain from doing an act under Section 85.022, Family Code. Therefore, the Court approves the agreement without making a finding of family violence and issues this AGREED PROTECTIVE ORDER against the Respondent. The Court FINDS that the Order is in the best interest of the Applicant, the family or household, or a member of the family or household. The Court FINDS that the Respondent agreed did not agree to waive all post-order relief, including the right to appeal this Order and to file a motion for a new hearing or trial.
- (E) FINDS that the Respondent violated a Protective Order issued pursuant to Chapter 85, Family Code, by committing an act prohibited by the Order. The Court FINDS that the Protective Order was in effect at the time of the violation but expired thereafter. Therefore, the Court without making a finding of family violence grants the application and issues this Protective Order against the Respondent.
- (F) FINDS that there are reasonable grounds to believe the Respondent committed one or more of the following offenses(s) against the Applicant: Trafficking of Persons (Sec. 20A.02, Penal Code) Continuous Trafficking of Persons (Sec. 20A.03, Penal Code) Continuous Sexual Abuse of Young Child or Disabled Individual (Sec. 21.02, Penal Code), Indecency With a Child

(Sec. 21.11, Penal Code) Sexual Assault (Sec. 22.011, Penal Code) Indecent Assault (Sec. 22.012, Penal Code) Aggravated Sexual Assault (Sec. 22.021, Penal Code) Stalking (Sec. 42.072, Penal Code) Compelling Prostitution (Sec. 43.05, Penal Code). Therefore, the Court grants the application and issues this Protective Order against the Respondent.
(Art. 7B.003, Code Crim. Proc.)

- (G) FINDS that the Respondent’s conviction or placement on deferred adjudication community supervision for the offense(s) marked below constitutes reasonable grounds to believe the Applicant is the victim of sexual assault or abuse, indecent assault, stalking, or trafficking. Therefore, the Court grants the application and issues this Protective Order against Respondent.
 Trafficking of Persons (Sec. 20A.02, Penal Code) Continuous Trafficking of Persons (Sec. 20A.03, Penal Code) Continuous Sexual Abuse of Young Child or Disabled Individual (Sec. 21.02, Penal Code) Indecency With a Child (Sec. 21.11, Penal Code) Sexual Assault (Sec. 22.011, Penal Code) Indecent Assault (Sec. 22.012, Penal Code) Aggravated Sexual Assault (Sec. 22.021, Penal Code) Stalking (Sec. 42.072, Penal Code) Compelling Prostitution (Sec. 43.05, Penal Code) . (Art. 7B.003, Code Crim. Proc.)

- Family Code §85.026—Warning on Protective Order

X. SUSPENSION OF LICENSE TO CARRY A HANDGUN

The Respondent’s license to carry a handgun is SUSPENDED for the duration of this Order, and the Respondent is prohibited from obtaining a license to carry a handgun while subject to this Order. This provision does not apply if the Respondent is a peace officer, as defined by §1.07, Penal Code, actively engaged in employment as a sworn, full-time paid employee of a state agency or political subdivision.

XI. FINDINGS IN COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW

(Mark the box only if the three conditions listed below are true)

- The Court finds that the Respondent is DISQUALIFIED from possessing a firearm pursuant to federal law because:
1. the Applicant and the Respondent are spouses or former spouses, share a child in common, and/or live together or have lived together in an intimate relationship;
 2. the Respondent has received actual notice of the hearing pertaining to this order, and was given an opportunity to participate; and
 3. this order restrains the Respondent from harassing, stalking, or threatening the Applicant or child of the Applicant.

XII. CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION

BY ORDER OF THIS COURT, the address, county of residence and telephone number of persons protected by this Order and the address and telephone number of the place of employment or business, child-care facility or school of a person protected by this Order are CONFIDENTIAL. The Court ORDERS the clerk of the court to strike this information from the public records of the Court and maintain a confidential record of the information for use only by the Court or law enforcement for the purpose of entering the information required by Section 411.042(b)(6), Gov’t Code, into the statewide law enforcement information system maintained by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The Court designates the following person as the person to receive on a protected person’s behalf notices and other documents related to this Order.

Address: _____

XIII. ORDERS TO THE CLERK OF THE COURT

If this Order suspends the Respondent's license to carry a handgun, the Clerk shall send a certified copy of this Order, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Handgun Licensing Program at the TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

THE COURT ORDERS the clerk of the court to enter both the Protective Order and the Application for Protective Order into the Protective Order Registry within 24 hours after the court issues this Order.

XIV. ORDER REGARDING LAW ENFORCEMENT ASSISTANCE

If this Order excludes the Respondent from the residence, and the Applicant or the person granted possession of the residence requests assistance, the Court ORDERS the Sheriff, Constable, or Chief of Police to provide a law enforcement officer to:

1. accompany the Applicant, or the person granted possession of the residence, to the residence covered by this Order;
2. inform the Respondent that the Court has ordered the Respondent excluded from the residence;
3. protect the Applicant and other protected person(s), if any, while the Applicant and protected person(s) take possession of the residence, and the Respondent takes possession of the Respondent's necessary personal property; and
4. if the Respondent refuses to vacate the residence, remove the Respondent from the residence and arrest the Respondent for violating this Order.

XV. DURATION OF PROTECTIVE ORDER
